

Read and Discuss

THE FRESH NEW FACE OF GRISELDA

- Griselda has a collection of teacups. Although they aren't worth much money, they are valuable to her. Why? Do you collect anything special?
- What does Griselda learn from her older sister Maribel in the story? Does Maribel learn anything from Griselda?
- Griselda starts a makeup business to try to earn money for her family. Have you ever wanted to start a business? What kind would you start?
- Toward the end of the book, Griselda must make a speech about someone who represents the Spirit of Success." Who would you talk about if you were making that speech?
- One of the things Griselda misses most about her old house is the garden. What would you miss if you had to move?
- This story was inspired, in part, by the Cinderella story. What similarities do you notice between the novel and the fairy tale?